

European competition for original choreography of Aces Europe's anthem

Regulation

Aces Europe announces a European competition for original choreography of Aces Europe's anthem

1 Recipients

The "Original Dance Choreography" contest is reserved for audiovisual products made by European dance schools, which reside in the Municipalities already awarded Cities, Communities and Towns and therefore included in the Aces Europe network or Municipalities already recognized or candidates for future recognitions.

2 Objectives of the contest

Encourage the production of an original choreography, made on the official anthem of Aces Europe, live dance as a form of universal communication to reinforce the sense of European Community.

3 Registration method

All dance schools located in the territories of the Municipalities / Communities awarded by Aces Europe in any year and in all European nations are automatically registered for the competition. Registration to the contest is free.

4 Modality of participation

To participate in the contest it is necessary to send the following materials before October 30, 2020:

- Authorization, completed and signed, to publish the video (unless the video has not been previously published)
- Final copy of the video, of the same length as the Aces Europe anthem.

5 Delivery method

The authorization and the video may be sent in one of the following ways:

- Through email, sending a copy of the video to email aces@aces-europa.eu
- Through the link, sending the link of the video published on the internet to the email aces @ aces-europa.eu

6 Jury and Awards

A special jury chaired by the President of Aces Europe will view all the videos and decide the winner. At the discretion of the jury, special mentions may be attributed. The jury will define the evaluation criteria that will include the effectiveness and the appropriation of the idea / subject in the communication of the themes of the contest and the relevance to the general theme.

The award for the "Original Dance Choreography" will be attributed to the dance school that has achieved the highest jury score. The winning school will be awarded in cash a prize of 1,000 (thousand) Euros and an Aces Europe medal.

The winning original choreography will be announced during the Aces Europe Awards Gala to be held at the European Parliament in Brussels in November / December 2020.
